SEASON 1948

KENWOOD IRIS GARDENS HEMEROCALLIS LIST

(Mrs. J. F. Emigholz)

Phone SY. 7496

7595 Montgomery Road

Cincinnati, 13, Ohio

Daylilies are becoming more popular each year. Have you seen the newer varieties? All shades of yellow, from deep cream to golden orange; pinks and reds in many colorings. The great variation in the color pattern helps to make each variety distinct. There are bicolors and flowers with contrasting bandings on the petals, and the blending of colors to form new shades. They are easy to grow, and bloom in dry, hot weather. The Mid-West have adopted it as their flower, and formed a society that already has over 700 enthusiastic members, although it is only a year old.

The flowers are in bloom from the middle of May until the 10th of August in our locality. Two varieties listed bloom later. The plants need sun for half a day to bloom, and thrive best in a sunny location. While they will bloom in heat and drought, you will get larger flowers if they can be watered occasionally. Allow 2 feet between plants for normal growth. Several kinds often bloom again in fall, and are marked "X" before the price. Most of the yellow varieties are delightfully fragrant.

COLOR LISTING: Varieties are placed in color groups. Few people have color charts, and do not know the depth of color from the descriptions. As the Betscher hybrids are widely grown, and have a wide color range in the yellow and orange shades, they were used as a basis for depth of color, and begin with "1". Flowers lighter in color are marked "0". Other varieties having the same color number may be entirely different in form, size of flower, and height. The numbers are only used to help you select different variations of color. It is not yet possible to use this procedure for pink and red shades, as there are too few which are widely grown, from which to select.

TRANSPORTATION: Strong, single divisions are sent postpaid. If heavier plants of the less expensive varieties are wanted, have them sent express collect. Larger plants make a better showing. Local orders can be dug at any time, but Mail orders are sent only in spring, and after the blooming season. No mail orders are accepted under $2.00. Ohio purchasers, please add sales tax.

SEEDLINGS: Each year new varieties are developed, showing improvements in form and color. Of these, only a few are set aside for further testing. Do you want a thrill? Then try some, all will bloom this year. They are fine to use in naturalistic plantings, and you will receive colors that are not possible in named varieties offered at the same price. Seedlings are only available in fall after the blooming season.

FINE MIXTURE: Includes all colors in a balanced mixture, 8 for $2.50 postpaid; 20 for $5.00; 50 for $10.00, express collect.

LOW VARIETIES: A number of brilliant colors appear in this group, that are 20 inches or lower in height. A few available at 8 for $3.00 postpaid. Order early.

KENWOOD SERIES: An extra fine selection, labeled as to color. 6 for $3.00, postpaid; 12 for $5.00; 25 for $9.00, express collect.

SELECTED PINKS AND REDS: A few sets are available at $3.00 for 3 different of either color, or $5.50 for both. Order early, so that they can be marked for you while in bloom.

You are invited to join the Mid-west Hemerocallis Society, and receive a valuable Year Book, full of useful information. The yearly dues are $3.00. Send to Mrs. Pearl Sherwood, Atlantic, Iowa.

NEW INTRODUCTIONS

These seedlings have been carefully selected as being distinct and better than known named varieties. Two descriptions are given for these and other new varieties. The colors are taken from Ridgeway's chart for the first description, and are intended only for those who want exact colors. The second one gives the general color, as you see it in the garden. Have not been able to use the Maerz and Paul Dictionary of Color, which is advocated by the Hem. Society, as it has the pure tones, while day-lilies do not have these colors, especially in the pink and red shades. Ridgeway seems to show tones nearer to their color range. In many instances, I have found that the same color name represents a different color in both charts.

1948 - Have only enough stock of the following two varieties to offer for this year.

MELISSA - 36" July-Aug. A 6" bloom with recurving, fluted divisions. Opens orange buff, flushed and overlaid Acajou red, with a broad light edge. Pale creamy midrib on petals. Center orange buff, with a lighter cadmium yellow throat. The flower fades to a soft old rose, with pale buff edges. A very pleasing pinkish toned variety, with a golden center. $3.00

SHOWER OF GOLD - 58" tall. July-Aug. A late bloomer, with flowers 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ " across, and a form like an amaryllis. The two upper petals recurve, but the lower petal is straight-hanging, with a crimped end. A most distinct form, and greatly admired. Light golden yellow, flushed a deeper tone. Larger, and a tone more golden in color than Golden West. (13A). Sepals edged a deeper color, which extends down the throat. Stems well branched. \$3.00

1947 - Only four varieties available this year, one only in fall.

CORNELIA - 42" July-Aug. The 5" blooms are light Eugenia red, with a buff-yellow edge, throat veined carrot red. All segments wavy and reflexing slightly, green-yellow throat. A charming rosy color that is very pleasing. $3.50

EUGENIA - 42" July-Aug. A 5" bloom of closed, lily-like form, with all segments fluted and slightly recurving. Color Eugenia red, with raised creamy mid-rib on petals. Throat deep chrome. A fine unfading rosy red. Quite distinct. $5.00
